Dear Mr. Vedavyasacharya,

In connection with the organisation of the A.R.P. scheme in Bangalore City, I had arranged to incorporate St. Martha's Hospital in Bangalore City as one of the main A.R.P. Centres. The Hospital authorities were pleased to place their staff and equipment at the disposal of the A.R.P. services. On my recommendation, Government were pleased to sanction the installation of a telephone in the St. Martha's Hospital. I now understand that this telephone connection has since been removed without any intimation to me. This institution is situated in a most prominent part of the City. Should there be any emergency, this is one of the major institutions which I rely upon and the removal of the telephone from this institution will be a severe inconvenience in the event of any emergency. I, therefore request that the telephone disconnected from this institution may kindly be ordered to be restored.

Yours sincerely,

Monteiro
